

Voluntary Guidelines on Gender Equality and Women's and Girls' Empowerment in the Context of Food Security and Nutrition

© Maria Guardia

This course explores the “CFS Voluntary Guidelines on Gender Equality and Women's and Girls' Empowerment in the Context of Food Security and Nutrition”, clarifying their rationale, key objectives, and core principles, as well as the main stakeholders targeted. It also provides an in-depth analysis of the nine focus areas around which the recommendations are structured.

 4 hours

You will learn about

Digital badge

- What the Guidelines are and how they were developed.
- The background, the rationale and core principles behind the Guidelines.
- The main stakeholders addressed by the Guidelines and how they should ensure their implementation and monitoring.
- The nine focus area around which the Guidelines are organized, with supporting data, detailed explanations and relevant case studies for each one.

Who is the course for?

This course is primarily intended for:

- Government representatives and policymakers.
- United Nations professionals.
- Civil society members.
- Researchers (international agricultural research institutions).
- Professionals from international and regional financial institutions.
- Private company managers.

Key partners

This course has been designed and developed by the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations (FAO) and funded by Global Affairs Canada under FAO's programme promoting the dissemination and uptake of the "CFS Voluntary Guidelines on Gender Equality and Women's and Girls' Empowerment in the Context of Food Security and Nutrition".

FAO elearning Academy

This course is available through the FAO elearning Academy.

Please visit the Academy and browse our extensive catalogue in multiple languages. Register once to access hundreds of titles.

All courses are available as a global public good for free.

How to access the course

1. Go to the e-learning Academy: elearning.fao.org
2. Register and log-in with your user name and password

© FAO, 2025
CD/7655EW/11.25

[😊] Registration is fast and easy