Appended to document C 95/INF/15 are notification forms which should be submitted to Room B.202, Office of the Secretary-general of the Conference and Council.

It should be noted that present membership expires on 31 December 1995.

Written Statements by Delegations

Delegates intending to make statements from a prepared text, and who wish to help ensure that the impact of their words is equally strong in all languages, are requested to read at a reasonable speed and to hand in 6 copies of the texts as soon as possible in advance to Room A.127 where it will be distributed to the Interpreters and Verbatim Reporters. Such a precaution will also help minimize errors, especially when quoting figures and proper names.

In order to assist Heads of Delegation in planning their appointments for Wednesday 25 October, the order of speakers foreseen, subject to final confirmation, is as follows:

Morning: Poland, Suriname, Israel, Rwanda, Guyana, Bulgaria, Afghanistan, Hungary, Swaziland.

Afternoon: Lesotho, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Haiti, Guinea-Bissau, Sierra Leone, Bulgaria, South Africa, Grenada, Albania, Malawi, Trinidad and Tobago, Zambia, Peru and the United Nations Development Programme.

Bank Facilities for Delegates

The "Banca Commerciale Italiana" (BCI) has reserved a special window for the exclusive use of Delegates and Observers attending the Conference. This service will operate at the "Official Transactions" counter in Front of BCI Offices on the Ground Floor of Building B from Mondays to Fridays (08.30 - 14.00 hours and 14.45 - 16.00 hours).

Telephone, Telefax and Electronic Mail Facilities for Delegates

Telephones for internal or Rome calls are located in the Polish lounge and at the entrance to Building A as well as in the corridors on the first and third floors of Building A. Before making Rome calls, dial "0" and await the external dial tone.

Incoming telephone calls for delegates are received by the telephone receptionists in Room A.235bis. Every effort will be made to locate any delegates receiving incoming calls. However, should this not be possible, a message will be taken and left at the Documents Desk. Delegates expecting incoming calls should advise the telephone receptionist (Ext. 56916/56917) where they can be found.

Outgoing long-distance calls may be booked through the telephone receptionist in Room A.235bis. Telefax facilities are available in Room A.235bis. Apart from the actual cost of the telephone call to transmit the message a Service Charge of lire 3.300 per page will be levied.

Electronic mail: an Internet electronic mail service is available for Conference delegates in front of the Documents desk, Building A, 1st floor. Assistance will be available from 09.00 hours until 17.30 hours each day. The Internet address for delegates wishing to receive mail is: "Delegates@FAO.Org". As this is a single account incoming messages should show the name of the delegate addressed at the beginning of the text, i.e. Att: <delegate name>. Messages received will be distributed through the Documents Desk.

Travel Facilities for Delegates

The FAO Travel Agency, "Summertime" on the ground floor of Building D (Room D.070), has reserved a special desk for the exclusive use of Delegates and Observers attending the Conference. This Service will be available from Mondays to Fridays (08.30 - 12.45 hours and 14.00 - 17.00 hours) during the Conference.

Medical Emergencies

First-aid services will be available during the Conference hours in Room A.121 on the first floor of Building A (Extensions 57005/57008).
